Ms. Fazio joined UGI International in September 2022 as Vice President of Supply. In December 2023, she was appointed Vice President of Region West with overall responsibility for the LPG businesses located in France and Belgium, alongside her prior role leading the European supply function. Prior to joining UGI International, Ms. Fazio held several senior leadership positions at ExxonMobil where she worked for over 25 years.

Bob Flexon, President & CEO of UGI Corporation said, “Since joining UGI International, Julie has made significant contributions to the company, demonstrating strong leadership in optimizing our supply chain, streamlining operations, and fostering a culture that prioritizes safety and operational excellence. She has an extensive background in the downstream energy sector, supply chain management, manufacturing operations, and commercial practices. I am looking forward to working with Julie as she leads UGI International into its next chapter.”

“I am honored to assume the leadership of UGI International at this pivotal point in our company’s history,” commented Ms. Fazio. “While we stand on a solid foundation, I am focused on our future and driving disciplined focus and simplicity as we look to unlock greater value in the business. I am profoundly grateful to our talented team whose dedication, courage and ingenuity has and will drive our success. Together, we will build on our legacy of delivering strong customer service and financial performance, creating meaningful value for all stakeholders.”
